

THE FIRST CONTACT: WHEN IN DOUBT, REFER OUT

THREAT TO SELF OR COMMUNITY

If you observe or are encountering immediate violent, aggressive, or erratic behavior, contact:

Public Safety: 267-341-3333
EMERGENCIES: 911

If you observe signs that can threaten the safety or the well-being of the university community, contact:

University CARE Team
267-341-3204
careteam@holyfamily.edu

CONCERN FOR WELLNESS

If you are meeting with a member of the Holy Family University community who needs to talk about a personal concern or is experiencing a psychological or emotional crisis, contact:

Counseling Center 267-341-3222 counselingcenter@holyfamily.edu

DISABILITY SUPPORT SERVICES

If you are working with a student who is currently receiving accommodations, or whom you believe might need additional short or long-term accommodation support, contact:

disAbility Support Services 267-341-3231
disabilityservices@holyfamily.edu

ACCESS TO BASIC NEEDS & ADVOCACY FOR SUPPORT

If you notice a member of our community needs support with unmet basic needs, such as food or housing insecurity, is experiencing or has experienced a major life event, or is unable to afford University-required textbooks or school supplies, contact:

Office of Student Advocacy
267-341-3432 smbinkowski@holyfamily.edu

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT OR HARASSMENT / DISCRIMINATION

If you are working with a student who has been a victim of sexual misconduct or harassment, or a person who has been a victim of discrimination based upon a protected class, contact:

Title IX Office 267-341-3204 titleix@holyfamily.edu